

Chapter 6: Practice using infinitives

Each Latin sentence has in parentheses an English phrase which can be expressed in Latin as a main verb plus an infinitive. Provide the correct Latin words for the English words in (parentheses).

Example:

Quintus (orders Horatia to help).

Answer: iubet Horatiam iuvare

1. (You want to go) domum.

2. (He decides to run) ad agros.

3. (You all ought to write) litteras.

4. (They order the girls to wait) prope ludum.

Homework

5. (You want to sleep) in ludo!

6. pueri (want to play).

7. magister (ought to teach).

8. Quintus prope ianuam (decides to wait).

9. cibum (I want to buy).

10. Scintilla et Flaccus pueros (want to watch).